Our Learning Grid
Year 5 Autumn 1

Values Focus	Kindness and respect <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• We know what makes us unique and are there for each other.</li> <li>• We help each other and those around us.</li> <li>• We celebrate diversity and are supportive and tolerant of others.</li> <li>• We respect all school property.</li> <li>• We work collaboratively with the wider school community.</li> <li>• We use of good manners at all times.</li> <li>• We listen actively.</li> <li>• We support each other to be brave and take risks.</li> </ul>
English	In English, the children will be writing an autobiography about themselves using the book, The Good Guys , written by Rob Kent, as our inspiration. We will also use this book to write persuasive letters. In reading will focus on the book, Room 13 , written by Robert Swindells.
Maths	In maths, we will be consolidating and ensuring our place value understanding of numbers with up to 6-digits is secure before moving onto practising mental and written methods for addition, subtraction, multiplication and division.
Science	We will be learning about living things and their life cycles in Autumn 1, where we will look closely at classification and reproduction.
Topic	This half term, the children will be exploring the concept of power in RE. In music, the children will focus on singing. In art, the children will be using different media to produce their own portraits. In PSHE, the children will be looking at the concept of respect. In geography, the children will be exploring the different biomes of North America.
Other	Our two sports that we will be playing in PE this half term are badminton and outdoor adventurous activities which will focus on team building skills.
